

Chairman's Desk

Dear CWA member,
January 22 marks the 34th anniversary of the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade. You and I continue to pray and fight for the millions of victims of this modern day slaughter of the innocents. These victims aren't limited to the unborn children robbed of a chance of life. They include millions of women like Jessie (page 12), many of them children themselves, who have been deceived into making a terrible "choice."

A few days ago, the 110th congressional session convened with Democrats in the majority for the first time in 12 years. As you'll see in the cover story of this issue of Family Voice, we'll be kept very busy countering Speaker Nancy Pelosi's radical, anti-family agenda.

Despite this news, I write to you today to tell you that I am confident.

As Christians, you and I know that the battles we fight belong to God and to Him alone. We are merely soldiers working for His glory, but how He chooses to bring about that glory is not up to you or me; nor is it our place to question His judgment.

I do not claim to know God's plan, but I do trust in it. My responsibility is simply to work for God's glory, but He chooses the outcomes. And I will double my efforts this year, doing my best to play my small role in His perfect and unquestionable plan. I hope you will join me in doing the same.

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Beverly LaHoye". The signature is written in a cursive style.

A Legacy of Christian Values

You can make a very special gift to CWA by remembering us in your will. Your bequest is a way for you to leave your personal legacy for Biblical values, and it lets you ensure that someone is fighting for your children and your grandchildren.

A bequest won't affect your assets or cashflow during your lifetime, so it's affordable. Updating your will to include a bequest for CWA is also easy to do. You can use the following language to remember CWA in your will:

I give, devise and bequeath to Concerned Women for America, 1015 Fifteenth St., NW, Suite 1100, Washington, D.C. (Tax I.D. 95-3580834) for its general purposes:

- a) The sum of $ _____; or
- b) Name a particular investment or piece of property with legal description, custodian, etc., as applicable; or
- c) ____ percent of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, including property over which I have a power of appointment; or,
- d) All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, including property over which I have a power of appointment.