

The Value of Purity

As I previewed this issue of your Family Voice, it struck me that if we were to go back in time to Concerned Women for America's beginnings in 1979, our founders might have laughed at the suggestion that we could fill an entire issue promoting the concept of purity. Today, nearly 30 years later, I am sad to report that the culture has devolved to the extent that we are so busy fighting for the lives of unborn children, against hardcore pornography and the radical homosexual agenda, that little thought is given to advancing something as simple and lovely as purity.

And yet, could that not be the key? As Dr. Crouse's article in the January/February edition reminded us, purity is seen these days as an old-fashioned, sentimental value. But as such, it is underestimated. Purity is as substantial as a rock, and as vital to our emotional well-being as good hygiene is to our physical health. It is a precious, priceless gift to yourself, to those you love, and to the God who gives you life and salvation. It is a worthy thing to advance.

I pray this issue is a blessing to you and your family.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Beverly LaHaye". The signature is fluid and cursive.

Beverly LaHaye
Founder and Chairman

P.S. – Another note on the depravity of our society and the willingness of the politically correct set leading our nation, March has been declared “Homosexual History” month in California. Can the rest of the country be far behind? Please join me in prayer for our nation.