A Return to Truth

Dear Friends,

I'm very excited about this issue of Family Voice.

Oh, how we need to pray to the Lord daily as in Psalm 25:5, "Lead me in Your truth and teach me."

The main reason for the moral decay in our culture today comes from the loss of truth. Moral relativism has been seeping into our society for a long time and today it permeates our personal lives and many of the debates we face in Washington, D.C.

Recently, Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-Nevada) promised to do everything in his power to confirm three circuit court judicial nominees before the Senate's Memorial Day recess. But as I write to you several weeks past Memorial Day, the Senator has still not kept his promise.

Is that a big deal? Isn't that what politicians do? It shouldn't be, but that is the type of mindset we have allowed to take root in our hearts, where we expect politicians to "play loose" with the truth.

The Word of God, on the other hand, calls us to a higher standard in Matthew 5:37, "... let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No.' For whatever is more than these is from the evil one."

It's time we get back to that essential principle of truth, and it must start in our own personal lives. Once we do that, we'll see a radical change in our culture. I hope this issue will help us start on that path again.

Always remember that truth comes only from God, and therefore, the pursuit of truth will always lead us to Him.

Sincerely,
